For Individual Discovery

Go back and read from Mark 1 through chapter 6 verse 32.
How would you summarize what it means to follow Christ up to this point?

For Group Discussion

If you are participating in a Sunday morning discussion group, please review all these questions before meeting, and write down your answers or other items you might like to discuss.

What questions do you have about the sermon?

What was one thing you took away from the message?

Was there an everyday connection to the Sunday message?
If so, what?

How did this message affect your view of God? Yourself?
Others?

What was the most encouraging part of the message for you?
Why?

What was the most convicting part of the message for you?
Why?

Are there any applications of this message that would be enhanced by working together with other believers? If so, what are they, and how will cooperation with your spiritual family help?

In what ways did/will I share the Grace of God this week?

What matters should we take to the Lord in prayer?
