What questions do you have about the sermon?

What was one thing you took away from the message?

Was there an everyday connection to the Sunday message?
If so, what?

How did this message affect your view of God? Yourself?
Others?

Have you experienced Death and Rebirth in Jesus Christ?
Can you share how that took place in your life?

Are there any applications of this message that would be enhanced by working together with other believers? If so, what are they, and how will cooperation with your spiritual family help?

In what ways did/will I share the transforming power of the gospel this week?

What matters should we take to the Lord in prayer?
